DO, ND, MRN, MH, DNI, MGNI

Registered Osteopath, Naturopath, Acupuncturist, Iridologist & Herbalist.

My name is Marcia Harewood and for over 20 years I have been helping patients practicing Osteopathy, Naturopathy, Iridology, Herbal Medicine and Acupuncture.

I aim to prevent as well as treat a wide range of health issues and I do this using an array of different therapies. In particular, the Naturopathic Iridology health check is really ideal if you are experiencing slight health issues to more complex problems, as it aims to diagnose the root causes. Even if you do not have a health problem, as a preventative and to maintain health, a consultation would be very beneficial.

GRAZIA GATTI HOMEOPATHY

The Society of Homeopaths

Grazia Gatti LCCH, SHom Classical Homeopath.

I graduated from the London College of Classical Homeopathy in 1999 and I have practiced now for over 10 yrs, treating both adults and children. I work using the full healing potential of Homeopathy for short-lived, acute illnesses and with constitutional remedies for long-term conditions.

In acute conditions, homeopathic remedies stimulate the body to react efficiently to sudden traumas and infectious diseases (colds, flu etc) without having to resort to heavier medications.

A constitutional approach on the other hand gets to the deeper causes of disease and fosters a new balance of health in long-term conditions such as auto-immune diseases, recurrent infections, hormonal imbalances.

In the last five years I have furthered my training studying the Sensation Method with Dr Bawisha and Sanchindra Joshi – two of the most influential teachers on the international scene.

This exciting new development of Homeopathy has lead me to a deeper understanding of my clients. Through an in-depth consultation I can arrive to more precise and individualized prescriptions, selecting a constitutional remedy from a wider than ever range. This is a truly gentle, rapid and effective form of holistic medicine.
